UNDERSTANDING OUR FAITH

ב"ה

FAITH IS NOT ENOUGH

Chassidim say, “Self-sacrifice will give one the strength to jump off a roof, but all of the self-sacrifice in the world will not give one the strength to jump onto a roof. For that you must take the stairs.”

To achieve true and lasting spiritual growth and change, we must take the stairs. A leap of faith might be enough to begin the process of Redemption, but Moshiach is a state of spiritual maturity that requires understanding. For that, we must take the stairs.
