UNDERSTANDING OUR FAITH

GETTING READY

From the second day of Pesach, we begin counting the Omer, the fifty days between the exodus from Egypt and the Giving of the Torah.

The Giving of the Torah was a taste of the time of Moshiach. The Jewish People had to prepare for this experience by internalizing their faith for fifty days. During that time, G-d tested them many times and led them through many experiences that refined them and firmly entrenched their faith in their minds and hearts.

But the Giving of the Torah was only the beginning. Ever since that time, every moment of exile and challenge that we face prepares us for G-d's full revelation in the Time to Come.
